Competancies:

I am a reliable, concientious and punctual designer who takes pride in his work and working relationships. I perform well in a team environment working alongside others, but am equally comfortable taking responsibility for tasks and working alone.

I am able to communicate clearly and effectively using a wide range of mediums suitable for the intended audience. I enjoy working with a variety of different people, from suppliers through to colleagues and clients. Being able to build excellent relationships with these groups, I achieve successful delivery of projects, some to ambitious timeframes.

I enjoy working on a variety of genres within graphic design, from typography, where my strengths lie, through to print, websites, animation and photography. I have an eye for detail and seek perfection in all aspects of my work.

I am keen to broaden my knowledge and skill base including keeping my inspiration and influences upto date and 'fresh'. I draw on a variety of sources including Grafik, Creative Review and other web and print publications.

I am I.T literate in a variety of graphic design orientated software including Photoshop, Illustrator, Indesign, Flash and Dreamweaver as well as being competant in both Mac and Windows operating systems.

Work Experience:

Simon O'Neill Design & Promotions
Wellingborough
I've worked on a number of professional briefs , including high-end London casinos and the Falkland Island Commonwealth Committee.
I have liased with a variety of clients from idea conception to project completion. I was responsible for the ordering and purchasing of stock at suitable quality and cost for a variety of different projects, as well as being responsible for the design, build and maintenance of the company website, sondp.com, which displays a variety of work for potential clients.

ThankODD
London
During the course of November 09, I spent my time at ODD, a London based agency. During this time, I've gained experience in communicating with clients, improving my skills in the Photoshop, Indesign and Illustrator packages, as well as experiencing the development of high profile projects, such as Lacoste, PowerPlate and Westfield, from start to finish.

Copyrights
Banbury
Through the duration of the spring and summer, I was fortunate enough to gain experience within a design department based at a firm called 'Copyrights' in Banbury. During my time there, I worked on briefs for Paddington Bear, Tara Panda, The Boogey Man and The Flower Fairies, as well as gaining knowledge in the print processes and dealing with clients.

2004 - 2009
Co-op
Woodford Halse

2002 - 2003
Crockwell Farm Fisheries
Woodford Halse

Other Interests:

During my free time, I enjoy keeping fit and being outdoors. I have recently become a recreational snowboarder and keen to develop my skills into a hobby I can enjoy.

I enjoy having fun and I'm keen to try new sports or activities.
